TINX POUND BALL AND REGAIN LEAD

Terrapin Twirlers Walloped to Three Corners of Weeghman Park.

THE HOOFEES ARE BLANKED

Six Loss First of Final Series to the Mackmen—Cubs Win Opener, but Drop Afterpiece.

Baltimore, Sept. 25.—By combining the deliveries of three local flingers for 14 bingles, the Chieftains found their task an easy one yesterday in coping the odd game of the important series with the Terrapins, 8 to 5. The score:

White Horse Lose, of Course.
Chicago, Ill., Sept. 25.—Profiting by the base running blunders of Callahan's troops, who twice kicked away opportunities in addition to committing five fielding slips, Mack's world champion Athletics inaugurated their dual engagement of the season at Comiskey park yesterday, winning 6 to 4. No Sympathy for Jim.

Jim Bluejacket, who jumped to the Feds before Bloomington got its money for him from the Giants, had his face caved in the other day by a batted ball. Obviously he cannot expect much sympathy from Bloomington.

Yale Opens Saturday.

New Haven, Sept. 25.—Yale's football team had its final scrimmage yesterday before the opening game of the season Saturday with University of Maine. The varsity scored three touchdowns in 15 minutes. Pumpelly, playing on the scrubs, scored a field goal from the 35-yard line.

Captain Hinckley of the H. S. Eleven

This is Arthur Hinckley's third year as a member of the Rock Island high school football eleven, and he has been honored this season by being elected captain. He is a wonderfully good player, speedy, aggressive and a good ground gainer. He will play at quarterback.

CLABBY-GIBBONS BATTLE PLANNED

Promoters Believe Record-Breaking Crowd Would Attend the Scrap.

Chicago, Ill., Sept. 25.—A boxing match that was hushed out of a Milwaukee arena in 1911 will probably be restaged within the next three weeks in the same ring and the prospects are that it will draw the largest house that ever attended a 10-round go. Mike Gibbons of St. Paul and Jimmy Clabby of Australia and Hammond, Ind., will be the principals, although the match will not be officially "on" until next Tuesday, when Clabby is due home from the antipodes.

This fact became known yesterday when the announcement was made in the east that Leach Cross had signed for a Boston fight Oct. 13 and therefore had turned down a chance to meet Charley White before either the Mulken or Andrews club next month. This, so the report stated, has caused Andrews to give up searching for a White opponent, temporarily at least, and substitute the "cleverest welterweights in the world."

CHAMPION WILLIAM WINS THREE HEATS

Grand Rapids, Mich., Sept. 25.—William, king of the racing pacers, never beaten in a heat in the two years he has been racing, easily defeated Directum 1, in the great $6,000 match race on the Comstock park track yesterday. Betting was lively, Directum 1 being first favorite at $200 against $150, but it was even at post time.

Hardly had the starter's voice sounded when Directum 1 broke, William rushing to the pole, while the chestnut caught quickly and sprinted up to a good position in the wake of the big colt. Just enough daylight showed between them to keep Directum 1 from rubbing his nose on Martin's back as they raced around to the three-quarters.

The first turn was done in 0:30. Then they hit the head wind and came back so that the half was done in 1:01 1/4.

The time of the three heats was 2:01 1/4, 2:01 1/4, 2:02 1/4.

MILWAUKEE PROMOTERS AGAINST LARGE PURSES

Milwaukee, Sept. 25.—Milwaukee promoters have come to an agreement not to let boxers dictate terms any longer when it comes to fixing fight purses, as they did last year, and they feel that there is little chance of making a profit the coming season. Under the agreement the three Milwaukee clubs have come to a consolidation of interests which will leave the three clubs independent, but will bar a boxer from this city if he makes too big financial demands.

BOSTON WINS AGAIN AND NOW HAS A 7 GAME LEAD

Boston, Sept. 25.—The Braves had another double bill with the Cincinnati Reds yesterday. They took advantage of the occasion by winning one game and in going eight innings to a 2-to-2 score in the second. Stallings allowed two of his regular pitchers to rest, and pinned his faith on Dick Rudolph and the youngster, Dick Crutcher.

Rudolph pitched an easy game, winning, 5 to 0, but Crutcher, when his team was leading, 2 to 1, in the eighth started badly and was hit for the tying run, the game then being called on account of darkness. Seven games now separate the Braves from their pursuers.

New York, Sept. 25.—New York lost the fifth straight game yesterday when it fell before St. Louis, the score being 4 to 3.

BASEBALL TOURNAMENT AT BURGESS NEXT WEEK

Burgess, in the southern part of Mercer county, is to have a baseball tournament Wednesday, Sept. 30, Oct. 1 and 2. Sherrard, Burgess, Seaton and Matherville have entered teams in the event. Big plans are being made at Burgess for the affair. The winner will be champions of Mercer county. Two games will be played each day beginning at 1:30 p. m.

Boyle to Manage Keokuk.

Keokuk, Iowa, Sept. 25.—Frank Boyle, manager of the Muscatine club for several years, was selected to pilot the Keokuk team next season at a meeting held last night, when it was also voted to retain the franchise.

Too Much of a Breakfast.

Even Peacock's generous idea of suitable provision for a breakfast were surpassed by a London host who entertained J. L. Motley, Aug. 3, 1867. Motley writes to his daughter: "I went to the last breakfast of the season of the Philobiblon society given by Mr. Turner, a collector of rare books. Beginning with coffee and tea, we ended with sherry, champagne and maraschino; fish, cutlets, rois, salads, game, puddings and ice going on meanwhile in regular order. If you asked me what I did I can only say I opened my ears to the animated and intellectual conversation and my mouth, not to eat, but to gape and gasp and wonder at the prodigious consumption of victuals at that hour of the day. When I reflected that all those people would lunch at 2 and dine at 8 I bowed my head in humiliation, and the fork dropped from my nerveless grasp."—London Chronicle.

McGRAW TO STAKE PENNANT CHANCES ON COMING SERIES WITH THE BRAVES

Before the world's series is staged this fall there will take place another baseball series of almost as great an interest. On September 30 the Giants and Braves will engage in a series of five games, on the outcome of which the settlement of the National league pennant will largely depend.

Mugger McGraw will find that this series with the Braves is his last hope. To overtake the Braves in the lead they have acquired and to halt them in the steady climb they are making, it will be necessary for the Giants to take the big part of these games with their hated rivals. McGraw plans to employ every strategy he can muster when his team assails the Braves at the end of the present month.

All of the Giants' cleverness at pitching, base-running, batting and all of their bull-dog aggressiveness will be needed if they are to emerge from

Sol Butler the New H. S. Pigskin Star

Sol is the cracking good colored half-back of the Rock Island high school eleven this year, known among his fellow students as "Smoke" Butler. He came here from Hutchinson, Kan., with Coach Roe, and holds the inter-collegiate championship in the 100-yard sprint. He is an exceptionally fast man at halfback, and will materially aid this year's eleven. He has won 16 cups since he has been going to high school.

All of the Giants' cleverness at pitching, base-running, batting and all of their bull-dog aggressiveness will be needed if they are to emerge from the series with the most of the games won. The Braves have a wonderful confidence born of the success that has been theirs through the months they have been climbing.

Every member of the Boston team down to the last bench-warming recruit feels in his shoes that the pennant is for them. The spirit that wins has seized them all, and they have no thought of possible defeat. James, Rudolph and Tyler, that trinity of pitching class, show not the least sign of weakening. The harder they work the better they feel. Each finds that he can work every third day without the slightest fatigue.

There is little apprehension among the Braves over the coming series. They will enter with an advantage. The Giants approach it with a feeling of desperation, knowing that they have to win or forever be silent.
